(International News Service.)

Washington, June 25.—The greatest legislative fight in a generation has developed in the gigantic pitched battle.

The prohibition forces have carried by storm the front line of trenches on the west. Today they will mass their heavy artillery for the final assault, which, if successful, will make the nation bone dry.

Dynamiting of Home Mystifies Kansas Police

(International News Service.)

Cooke's residence at the Old Soldiers Home here last night. The entire north side of the building was wrecked. W. J. Squire, son-in-law of Gov. Cooke, was critically injured. Gov. Cooke, who is head of the soldiers' home, has received threatening letters from an old soldier who recently was sent away from the home for misconduct.

COMPANY B LEAVES FOR BIRMINGHAM

TROOPS GUARDING RIVER BRIDGE GO BY TRAIN SUNDAY MORNING; OFFICERS GO BY MOTOR CAR.

Company B, Second Alabama infantry, silently folded its tents at dawn Sunday morning and entrained from the Decatur depot on L. & N. train No. 1 at 6:11 o'clock. The men were ordered back to mobilize with the other units of the Second regiment, probably preparatory to being ordered to the fighting front in France.

Capt. Hal. Halstead of the company made the trip to Birmingham in his automobile.

The company has been busy since April 9 guarding the Southern Railway bridge over the Tennessee river. Other units of the Second regiment were also engaged in guarding the Flint river bridge of the Louisville & Nashville railroad near Flint, and the railroad bridge over the Tennessee river at Bridgeport, near Chattanooga.

And while the legislation now under consideration provides only for the period of the war, wets and drys alike admit that it will be years before the liquor element ever could come back at all.

The insertion by the house by an overwhelming vote on the prohibition amendment into the food control bill on Saturday was as much a surprise to the prohibition advocates as it was a shock to the wets.

The worst that had been feared was that the house would give the president the power to settle the liquor question in his own way. The arrival of the house food control and prohibition bill in the senate this afternoon set the upper house members running around in circles of hysteria. Informal conferences of senators trying to get their bearings on the house's unexpected adoption of the dry amendment were in progress in every nook and cranny.

The senate began hearing from the country today. A deluge of telegrams, letters, editorials and petitions condemning and endorsing the prohibition movement were received. One letter presented by Senator Gore warned of the dangers of rebellion. The advocates and opponents of the bill are perfecting their fighting plans. Meanwhile the time of the vote makes little difference.

The tax during the next year on all sorts of liquor will total, it is estimated, some $400,000,000 and the benefits to be secured from accepting prohibition in this form is worth the cost.

EMBARGO BOARD CREATED BY ORDER OF PRESIDENT TO REGULATE EXPORTS

GOVERNMENT MAKES USE OF POWERFUL WEAPON TO DEAL WITH COUNTRIES KNOWN TO BE TRADING WITH ENEMY.

WILL HAVE FOUR MEMBERS

POWER GIVEN TO NEW COMMISSION TO HEAD OFF ALL EXPORTS TO GERMANY OR TO STOP FOOD AND SUPPLIES NEEDED AT HOME.

(International News Service.)

Washington, June 25.—President Wilson today by executive order created the new export council better known as the embargo board. This will have complete authority to declare embargoes on exports from this country and is expected to prove the most powerful weapon in dealing with the other nations that are known to have been supplying Germany with foodstuffs or munitions.

Under the president's order the new council is made up of a representative of the commerce, agriculture and state departments and of the food administration—four members.

The placing of an embargo by this organization would make it impossible for neutrals to export great quantities of foodstuffs and other supplies. Through this plan the United States will be able to follow the exports of this country all the way to the consumer.

WILL IRWIN, NEGRO BARBER, CHARGED WITH MURDER OF WOMAN SUNDAY

CORONER'S JURY IS MYSTIFIED OVER DEATH OF SALLIE MALONE, NEGRESS LIVING NEAR FAIRVIEW; COUSIN ALSO ARRESTED.

IRWIN ASSERTS INNOCENCE

WOMAN WAS KILLED BY SHOTS FROM .32 AND .38 CALIBRE PISTOLS, WHILE ONLY .38 CALIBRE ARE FOUND ON PREMISES.

Another negro killing occurred at an early hour Sunday morning when Sallie Malone was killed near Fairview on the Flint road. Will Irwin, an Albany barber, and Sadie Malone, a cousin of the dead woman, are in jail charged with the murder.

W. M. Chenaunt, county coroner, empaneled a jury which held an inquest Sunday morning. The woman, in addition to having several cuts with a razor, had been shot four times twice with a .32 calibre revolver and twice with a .38 revolver. Indications showed that there had been a fight on the bed, that she took refuge under the bed, and that after she was killed she was dragged into the yard. There was a plentiful sprinkling and spattering of blood under the bed and on the floor out into the yard.

The jury reported the woman was killed by a bullet from a revolver in the hands of unknown parties.

It is reported that she and her husband, Pink Malone, have been separated for several months. Several letters found by the coroner from her husband indicated that he was jealous of her because of her intimacy with other men.

The motive of the killing was evidently not robbery, for there was found in the room $9.25 in money and a check for $3.25 from the Benevolent hospital. Also there was a check book in the room indicating that there had been deposited in a local bank more than $100, but no record was kept of any amounts checked out.

Two revolvers, both .38 calibre, were found in the room. One had not been shot, the other had one empty cartridge.

Irwin is a well known negro barber of Albany. He stoutly denied his guilt to officers when arrested Sunday and was much affected by the arrest.

The coroner's jury was composed of P. L. Watson, H. G. Drake, A. F. Britnell, T. A. Johnson, W. E. Owens and G. W. Smith.

100 DEGREES WAS REGISTERED BY U.S. WEATHER BUREAU HERE YESTERDAY

JUNE RECORDS OF MANY YEARS' STANDING ARE BROKEN BY UNUSUAL HOT WAVE, SATURDAY AND SUNDAY BEING ESPECIALLY WARM.

NO RELIEF IS IN SIGHT

DESPITE HEATED WEATHER, NO PROSTRATIONS FROM HEAT REPORTED IN TWIN CITIES OR REST OF NORTH ALABAMA UP TO TODAY.

100 degrees in the shade! That was the record yesterday in the Twin Cities, according to Mrs. A. H. Irons, in charge of the government weather bureau in Decatur. The thermometer began Sunday morning with 68 degrees and slowly climbed until the high mark for the summer was reached yesterday afternoon.

Today gave promise of being even warmer, as the temperature at 5 o'clock this morning registered 69 degrees, one degree hotter than the same hour Sunday morning. This temperature was also much warmer than the same hour Saturday morning when the mercury in the tube climbed to 98 degrees, as predicted by the Daily Saturday afternoon. Saturday's temperature stood as the season's high record until Sunday when a score of 100 was registered by the government thermometer.

And at that, there are citizens who would quarrel with the government thermometer. Many who have thermometers at their homes declared the government instrument was unusually conservative and that their tubes showed more than 100 degrees.

No Relief is Promised. No relief was promised the Twin Cities and the remainder of North Alabama that is baking under the sun and drought. The government forecasters were only able to promise occasional thundershowers during the week with continued warm weather.

The hot weather is breaking records of many years' standing here. In spite of the hot weather no prostrations from heat were reported Sunday.

"LE BRAVE BELGE!"

It warms the cockles of American hearts to read of the great ovation accorded the Belgian mission by the staid United States senate. Nothing could have pleased the American people better than for the dignified senate to unbend for a moment and pay honest tribute to representatives of the tattered and torn little nation that held the German arms for two weeks in its march on Paris until the French and English armies could mobilize.

That gay little land whose cities almost overlapped each other, so crowded was the population, will be more famous in after years for patriotism and loyalty than any of the ancients who gave their lives for their country. Those soul-stirring days of early August, 1914, when the kaiser, after forty years of dreaming and planning, flung the dice of fortune with his imperial chancellor and decided to spring at the throat of fair France, furnished the Belgians opportunity to be either the most craven nation on earth or to die like freemen. That the Belgians have died, and died gloriously, may be best attested by the fact that the country scarcely has an army left.

August, 1914, also gave opportunity for another nation, Germany, to show her mettle. Germany hesitated not a moment at plunging her sword into the heart of the little neutral country. How she accomplished her purpose will forever be a blot on the German government and the German people. Belgian cities, temples and homes were wrecked out of pure Hun hate, and worst of all, non-combatants were slaughtered and deported and women were violated by the thousands.

It is any wonder that civilized nations stood aghast at the rape of Belgium and the democracies of the world have risen to crush the government that made such atrocities possible in the twentieth century?

And so it is that the American people can welcome the mission from little Belgium with genuine admiration. We can believe with Baron Moncheur that "Belgium shall rise again" with its quaint cities and its wonderful manufacturing centers. And we can pledge ourselves with renewed ardor to the task of driving an inhuman and barbarous foe from the despoiled country. Americans everywhere welcome the Belgian mission.

MORE PLEAS FOR PROTECTION.

(Birmingham Ledger.)
 City authorities of Albany and Decatur have taken practical steps to stop or reduce to a minimum the speeding nuisance, as shown by the announcement from that source that anti-speeding laws of those towns will be rigidly enforced.

The Albany-Decatur Daily, referring to this, says:

Too long have these laws been broken with a reckless defiance that is not tempered even by daylight hours or the congested sections of the business district. While about 30 miles per hour is the limit downtown in the day time, this is almost a minimum rate of travel at night on the residence streets. Races, rivaling in their fierce intensity those of the Roman charioteers, are often staged by prominent thoroughbreds. Not only do the motorists disregard the safety and welfare

A THOUGHT FOR THE SABBATH AND EVERY OTHER DAY

BY OBSERVER

NOTHING SHOULD BE AN END.

The legal descriptive words, "fatal error" tell what one has fallen into who makes an "end" in itself of anything. Final objectives are not attainable by mortals. "The finals" are not played on this earth. This mortal must put on immortality and even then life is but fairly begun. How foolish then, to make an "end" even of our lives, even of our living, much less of the little things that are admittedly only incidental to life. A member of the fair sex, who makes and end even of as good a thing as housekeeping is fit only for a maid and she is apt to turn out to be an old maid at that. If we make being wise an end, it will turn out that we become wise (only) in our own conceits. If we make as high a faculty as thinking and end we are little dreamers. If we preach too much, we find ourselves saying with the preacher in the Bible: "All is vanity and vexation of spirit." And who has not been worn threadbare by being told not to make money, family, position, society and pleasure ends? American youths of both sexes are making pleasure an end entirely too much. Today's dispatches tell what the eminent authority, Dr. John H. Quale, of Cleveland, O., says on this:

"Our youngsters smoke too many cigarettes. They drink too much. Their habits are irregular. They ride instead of walk, and go to a show instead of going to bed. They eat pie and pudding instead of fruit and rich dishes instead of vegetables."

Excessive pleasure saps vitality quicker than any thing else. But to continue: The Crusaders of the middle ages erred in making the physical possession of the holy land an end. Church domination is one of the most damnable ends ever sought. Political domination by a few soon spells ruin, and finally a lot of ruin, as humanity will never submit to rulership and power being made end by a few and lodged in the hands of a few—however much such autocratic rulers may profane God by proclaiming Him their partner and appointer. Constantine after a year or more found this last to be true, after he had told Venizelos, that he (Constantine) was responsible to no one save God himself.

It is to destroy forever the damnable heresy of the divine right of kings that the civilized world is now at grips to arrest the powers of darkness. And anybody that is making a little "ism" fight an end now, or race hatred an end, that is seeking to hold his church together, that is walking so easy now that "pussy feet" will do him instead of the "iron shoeing" spoken of as of God in the Bible. Any body who has his eye on any end, save our present objective of arresting the kaiser, is a potential traitor to his country and is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils. Finally, we should not make the saving even of our immortal souls an end. But why? In a word, because it is unscriptural, selfish and dishonoring to God. What shall we make an end then? Nothing. But do throw open the windows of your soul to the pure air of God's breezes. Do open the windows of your soul and see the truth. Smile evil wherever you get a chance and trust in God.

Just In Passing

HOTTEST DAY IN HISTORY.

"Sunday was the hottest day in the history of the Twin Cities," said T. H. Mattocks. "I have been here more than 30 years and I have never known the heat to go to 100 degrees before. The hottest weather I remember here was in May several years ago. But at that time the temperature did not go more than 97 or 98 degrees. The coldest weather I ever saw here was 11 degrees below zero."

ATHENS MAN BOOSTS DAILY.

"I wouldn't give one Daily for ten of any other of the big dailies in the South," said Ernest Morrill, of Athens. "I get a Daily each afternoon from the Daily carrier in Athens and when I get through reading it I send it to my brother in Carmel, Ill. My brother is also a booster for the Daily and says it is the best little paper that he ever read."

Mr. Morrill is coming to the Twin Cities soon to put in a skating rink.

RURAL CARRIERS TO MEET.

"The Alabama Rural Letter Carriers association is going to have a big meeting in Selma on July 4th and 5th," said A. S. Reynolds of Selma, secretary of the association. "President F. H. Carr will announce the complete program within a few days. Among the speakers will be J. A. Rountree, of Birmingham, secretary of the United States Good Roads association. We want every carrier in the state who can come to pack his grip and get there."

WAR BOOMING CHATTANOOGA.

"One can see nothing but military preparations in the city of Chattanooga," said Oliver C. Parker. "I was there last week and could see nothing but miles and miles of munitions, lumber, food and military stores of all kinds. The officer in charge of the camp there is certainly a hustler and has thousands of details to look after each day. People in those cities that have camps near them are all busy and are getting a foretaste of what this war means."

"FROM HEAVEN TO HELL."

"I was in and around Talladega Sunday," said William Watson of the Alabama Power Company, "and coming back to Birmingham I passed a long troop train. Part of this train was about 20 flat cars with two motor trucks loaded on each car bound for the coast. I suppose, with a unit of United States army engineers. On one of the cars had been scrawled by a soldier was: 'Bound from Heaven to Hell.' Fighting in France is going to be a grim business, but the soldiers must have their fun along with it."

On His Dignity.

"You shouldn't have eaten so much as the party, Willie, and you wouldn't have been sick."

"But, mother, how could I help it? 'Didn't you know you had eaten too much, my son?'"

"Yes, mother, I knew it all right, but I was too proud to admit it."—Yonkers Statesman.

Chills and Fever Not Only Signs of Malaria

Chills and Fever Not Only Signs of Malaria

Throughout the South, the thought of chills and fever has been so constantly associated with malaria that many people think them the only sign of that disease.

But as a matter of fact, nearly everyone living in a southern climate is more or less affected with malaria; though comparatively few suffer with chills and fever.

Perhaps the most common symptom of malarial poisoning is that "all-in," listless, lifeless feeling. If you feel that way, especially at this time of the year, it will be well for you to take a few doses of Quinotone, a tonic prepared especially for the relief of malaria, and thus avoid the attack of chills and fever that might otherwise follow.

Quinotone is a pleasantly flavored vegetable preparation. It contains no arsenic or quinine sulphate, nor is it necessary for you to take calomel or blue mass with it. Yet it is more prompt in effect than many remedies containing those drugs.

Many of your neighbors have taken it. They will tell you how good it is, how pleasantly it acts. It is guaranteed to please you or your money cheerfully refunded.

You can buy Quinotone in big 50-cent packages at Dillehay Brothers or other good drug stores.

NOTE.—Readers are advised to insist upon genuine Quinotone—then they'll know they are getting the best remedy for their malaria or chills and fever.

If you need a clerk, salesman, stenographer or any kind of help, the quickest way is a Daily want ad.

Extracting Broken Screw. A tool for extracting broken set screws is described by the Scientific American as resembling a drill with a coarse left-handed thread. A hole is drilled into what remains of the screw or bolt, the extractor is inserted, and as it turns it exerts a reverse influence on the broken screw and backs the latter out on its own thread.

Constellation of Orion. The constellation known as Orion is referred to in Job 9:9 and 38, 31. Orion is the "giant" of oriental astronomy, and the giant was Nimrod the mighty hunter, fabled to have been bound in the sky for impiety. The two dogs and the hare in nearby constellations made his train complete.

The Schoolgirl's Mind.
The mind of a schoolgirl does not proceed like the mind of an adult; it imitates the motions of a grasshopper. It sings in the summer, it dances in the winter, it transforms values, it doubts axioms, it is dogmatic upon impossibilities or what seem such to the adult mind, it compresses dreams into a creed, it has intuitions like the flash of an electric candle, or it plays the bat, shuts its eyes tight in broad daylight, folds its wings, hooks on to any convenient excuse, and goes fast asleep.—H. D. Sedgwick, in the Atlantic Magazine.

The Furlough.
The measure of length known as the furlong represents one-eighth of a mile. Originally it was the length of the ancient acre in England, which had a definite form, being 40 rods in length and four rods in breadth. On the old English open or common field system, each furrow plowed equaled in length the acre, and the distance was called furlong, that is, furrow-long, or 40 rods, or 660 feet, equal to 220 yards or one-eighth of a mile.

"CANADIAN KIPLING" SINGS SONGS OF WAR.
(William Hard in Metropolitan Magazine.)

It is the war's commonest phrase, and it's the best one for England. The soldier writes to his wife, "Carry on!" The wife writes back "Carry on!" England echoes minute by minute with "carry on!" Several million men in his majesty's uniform must, it seems, die. The Germans do not yield. France lacks men, Russia lacks material and it has men. Now it must pay. Out of England they must die, out of every street. They know they must. And their women know they must. And they say their deepest when they say "carry on!" In the following verses Robert W. Service, the "Canadian Kipling," who is now in the Red Cross service on the western front, has taken this uplifting slogan of the soldier as his theme for a hymn of hope for all burden bearers "in the strife of the battles of life."

It's easy to fight when everything's right,
And you're mad with the thrill and the glory;
It's easy to cheer when victory's near,
And wallow in fields that are gory.
It's a different song when everything's wrong,
When you're feeling infernally mortal,
When it's ten against one, and hope there is none,
Buck up, little soldier, and charge!

Carry on! Carry on!
There isn't much punch in your blow,
You're glaring and staring and hitting out blind;
You're muddy and bloody, but never you mind,
Carry on! Carry on!
You haven't the ghost of a show,
It's looking like death, but while you've got a breath,
Carry on, my son! Carry on.

And so in the strife of the battle of life
It's easy to fight when you're winning,
It's easy to slave, and starve and be brave,
When the dawn of success is beginning,
But the man who can meet despair and defeat
With a cheer, there's the man of God's choosing;
The man who can fight to heaven's own height
Is the man who can fight when he's losing.

Carry on! Carry on!
Things never were looming so black,
But show that you haven't a cowardly streak,
And though you're unlucky you never are weak,
Carry on! Carry on!
Brace up for another attack,
It's looking like hell, but—you never can tell,
Carry on, old man! Carry on.

Halcyon Days.

"Halcyon days" was the name given by the Greeks to the seven days which precede and follow the shortest day of the year. The reference is to an old fable which states that during this time of year, when the halcyon, or kingfisher, was breeding, there was calm at sea. From this tradition the phrase "halcyon days" has come to signify a period of peace and tranquility.

To Utilize Sugar.

Hard on Politicians.

And he gave it for his opinion that whoever could make two ears of corn or two blades of grass to grow upon a spot of ground where only one grew before, would deserve better of mankind and do more essential service to his country than the whole race of politicians put together.—Dean Swift's "Voyage to Brobdingnag."

Friends Make Tommy a Sot.

Sir Alfred Pearce Gould, speaking at Kilburn recently and referring to the effect of drink on soldiers, said that the British Tommy was not a drunken sot; it was the civilian population that was at fault. Hospitals should be a sacred retreat for soldiers, he said, yet they would hardly believe how difficult it was, even there, to protect the men from the introduction of drink from outside. He knew of one paralyzed and helpless man who was found hopelessly drunk after his friends had visited him.—London Times.

Radish Seed Pods Pickled.

The young and tender seed pods of some varieties of radishes are sometimes used for pickling like capers; in fact, the Madras or rat-tail radish is grown exclusively for its pods, which are eaten cooked and also used in pickle making.—United States Department of Agriculture.

Duck Flew 2,000 Miles in 50 Hours.

Two mallard ducks wearing silver bands on their legs killed near Mobile, Ala., by Dr. Shelton C. Frederick some time ago were released originally by Jack Minor of Kingsville, Ont. Doctor Frederick received a letter from Mr. Minor giving details of the remarkable record in flight made from Kingsville to Mobile. The mallards negotiated the flight of approximately 2,000 miles in 50 hours.

DISTRICT SUNDAY SCHOOL MEETING HAS LARGE CROWD

TEN OUT OF THIRTEEN CHURCHES IN THIS DISTRICT REPRESENTED AT CONVENTION.

The Albany-Decatur Sunday School District convention met at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the Central Baptist church. Out of the 13 schools listed for this district ten had representatives present. C. L. Buck was chairman and Henry Hartung was elected secretary to serve until the county Sunday school convention, which meets in Austinville July 12 and 13.

Dr. L. T. Mays, as host, expressed his appreciation of the convention meeting at his church. A. G. Patterson made a characteristically earnest address on the "Adult Sunday School Class," in its relation to the community, to the individual and to the church. Mr. Patterson taught that the possibilities of organized Sunday school work were practically unlimited. He made the point that self-expression of the very best brand was offered in the Sunday school adult classes. Mr. Patterson is the regular teacher of a large men's class which meets in the basement of his residence on Jackson street, and which is a part of the Central M. E. Sunday school. John F. Lovin, superintendent of the Central Methodist Sunday school, told in a short address the requirements necessary for a school to enter the "First Line" standing, as laid down in the international rules. A 75 per cent average of the total membership of the church to which a school belongs, present regularly, was one of the hard conditions imposed.

A pleasant feature of yesterday's convention was the singing of the South Side Baptist quartette, composed of Rev. L. L. Hearn, B. H. Curtis and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kall. This quartette's rendition of the hymn, "There Shall be Joy for the Reapers," produced a distinctly religious atmosphere.

At the direction of the convention all Sunday school superintendents are called upon on next Sunday to carry out the patriotic program as outlined by President Wilson for use in Sunday schools. Supt. Lovin announced that his school would decorate and have a patriotic program.

President Wilson's message to Sunday school workers is as follows: "To the Officers, Teachers and Scholars of the Sunday Schools of the United States of America:

"The present insistent call of our beloved country must be heard and answered by every citizen of the United States in proportion to his or her ability to maintain the national power and honor. Many citizens will render their aid by force of arms on the battlefield while others will make the nation strong by their patriotic gifts and support to the common cause. It is therefore highly fitting that the Sunday schools of the nation should observe a special patriotic day and on this occasion should make a special contribution to the American Red Cross for the alleviation of the suffering entailed by the prosecution of the present war. It is my earnest hope that your generosity may be unstinted in this, the hour of the nation's need, and that this special day may mean much to you in the understanding of the cause for which our beloved land now contends."

"WOODROW WILSON."

Next Sunday the district convention will meet in the afternoon at the First Baptist church of Decatur.

An Armenian Bride.

In a book of travels there is a description of an Armenian bride which is suggestive of a futurist painting; she had "delicate flowers of celestial blue painted all over her neck and breast, her eyebrows dyed black and the tips of her fingers and her nails a bright orange. She wore on each hand valuable rings set with precious stones, and round her neck a string of fine turquoise; her skirt was of finest-spun silk, her jacket of cashmere of a bright color. Over her face a veil was hung, and at one point of the ceremonial the priest crowned both bride and bridegroom with wreaths of flowers ornamented with hanging fringes of gold, changing them from one hand to the other three times, saying: "I unite and bind you one to the other; live in peace."

Study Your Habits.

Habit accustoms us to doing most of the everyday things in particular ways, and we consciously turn the mind to them only when they chance to be done differently. The dividing line between efficiency and inefficiency is largely right here. Anyone who stops to think about it can easily see that innumerable little habits make up a very large part of our lives. It is indeed well worth while carefully to study the host of little habits that breed and hide in the most secret cells of brain and muscle. None of them is too small to be worth attention.
